Lora Barnes spent Monday afternoon with Annie Rhoten.

D. R. Smith thinks there is no place like Sugar Creek. He says the rippling of the creek sounds like wedding bells.

There will be church at Green Wood Sunday, conducted by Rev. Stafford.

Sunday-school at Antioch every Sunday. Our motto is Welcome. Come and be with us.

Mrs. Helen Wright is looking for her children, Dora, Emma, Robert Lee and Edd Fowler Poston from Clarksville, where they have been at the I. O. O. F. Home for the past seven years. We welcome them to their new home in Robinsdale.

Come on Sentinel readers and give us the news. Slicker Snake how do you like this?

If you have a bit of news, Send it in;

Or a joke that will amuse, Send it in;

A story that is new, we want to hear from you,

Send it in;

Never mind about your style, If it only worth the while,

Send it in.

Did it ever occur to you Slicker Snake?

That a man life is full of crosses and temptations. He comes in to this world without his consent. And goes out of it against his will, and the trip is exceedingly rocky. The rule of contraries is the features of the trip. When he is little the big girls kiss him. When he is big the little girls kiss him. If he needs credit he can't get it. If he is prosperous every one wants to do him a favor. If he doesn't give to charity he is a stingy cuss, if he does it for show. If you spend it, you're a fool. If you get it you're a sharker. If you can't get it you're on idiot.

So what the use?

Say Slicker Snake I was sure glad to meet you the other day. Also the Editor too. I don't see why the readers of our paper can't take enough interest in writing and giving the news. I'm sure we can make it worth while, if we would only try. I'd like to see the Sentinel so full of news the Editor couldn't print it all at one time.

I see John V. Poston going to the phone. I wonder what will happen next? He will be gone.

Girls listen now and I will give you a good one.

If in this world, there were but two,

And if you knew, that no one knew,

Would you, what? Kiss Me.

Silas Smith and wife made a business trip to Livingston.

Hello! Stone give us the news from that place.

Bib Scott left here en route to Nashville in his Ford Truck, we wish him good luck on his trip.

Arlow Wiley is getting ready to leave for Coalinga.

Hello! Albert Masters I heard you was going to get married. There will be preaching at New Hope Sunday conducted by Rev. Hix.

Sallie Taylor says she is going to entertain the young folks now. She has a E. D. L. phonograph. Frank Anderson was here Tuesday.

Very sorry to hear of the death of Palo McCain's baby.

Farming is the occupation at this place except lawing. We have plenty of that I think Jackson county should build a court house at this place and I think the lawyers will agree with me. C. C. and Grady Gore will I know. And I believe P. J. Anderson will too.

Detroit, Mich.
June 6, 1921.

Dear Editor:

Allow me space and I will try to give you a little news from this place. Health is very good, with the exception of a few cases of what we call German measles. I have five cases in my own home.

Times are slack and the opinion of the people is, that business will be flat in July.

We are having some very cool weather for the time of year. People are wearing over coats just like they did Xmas.

Mrs. J. D. Birdwell, who has who is on the sick list is slowly improving. Geo. Allen is preparing to make a flying trip to Tullahoma and Nashville, and other points down south, as he has lately bought a Maxwell car.

Hello! Geo. Pharris of Coalinga, why don't you write?

Well I had some more of my kind of good luck Tuesday night, got two of my fingers crushed off between the end of a table leg and the iron floor. The doctor says they are doing fine. (I hope he knows.)

I wonder what has become of my friends Jno. Wilmoth and M. P. Tay, of route 1 and 3?

News is scarce and almost work time, so I must ring off. Hope to see you all soon.

W. S. Mabry,

Mrs. Nettie Butler.

Mrs. Nettie Butler, widow of the late Samuel G. Butler, died at the home of her son, L. B. Butler, on Jennings creek, Wednesday morning at two o'clock, aged 85 years, 5 months and 22 days.

Mrs. Butler had been confined to her bed for the past two years. About ten days ago she had a bilious attack and owing to her age and physical condition she gradually grew worse until the came.

She was a daughter of William Hawkins and wife and the last of the family. She was married to Samuel G. Butler in 1852 and to this union was born nine children, two of whom (Winfield and Harvey) have proceeded the mother to the better world. The other are, Mrs. Lizzie Bibbrey, Mrs. G. W. Birdwell, Miss Settle Butler, L. B., and Frank Butler of Gainesboro, Will Butler, of Elbert, Tex., and John Butler, of Clarendon, Tex., survive her. These children with a large number of grand-children and great-grand children and a host of other relatives and friends mourn her death.

Funeral service was held Thursday (conducted by Bro. Marion Harris. Interment in Butler cemetery at Butler Landing.

Graves Pate, of Nashville, representing Huggins Candy Co., was in Gainesboro Thursday. Graves is a former Jackson County boy and is one of the best salesmen on the road.

Popular Young People Wed.

On Wednesday, June 8, at high noon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gentry, prominent citizens of the Burristown community, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Ila, to Mr. R. Lilburn Owen.

Rev. J. w. Stone, pastor of the Baptist church, Baxter, pronounced the ceremony in a most beautiful manner in the presence of a few guests.

The bride was lovely in a beautiful blue traveling suit with hat to match. The groom wore the usual conventional back. Miss Ravine McGlasson acted as ring bearer and was attired in a beautiful dress of white.

Immediately after the ceremony the guests were escorted to the dining room, where a bounteous and delicious dinner was served. Mrs. Gentry fully sustained her reputation in the culinary art.

The bride is a very beautiful and accomplished young lady. She has ever been a bright star in the home circle and now she has gone to reign as queen in her own home. For the past two years she has held the important position as instructor in the State Industrial school at Nashville.

The groom, who is a son of Mrs. Nancy Owen, of the Cummins Mill community, was for several years one of the leading teachers in this county, but for three and half years has held an important position in the War Department, Washington, D. C.

Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. Marion Gentry of Cookeville; Mr. and Mrs. Carr Smith, of Baxter, Thurman Owen and Claude Jaquess, of Cummins Mill; Mr. and Mrs. Bart Smith and Mrs. Litten Carwile of Hilham; Mr. and Mrs. G. Lee McGlasson, Miss Ravine McGlasson, and Mrs. Fred McGlasson, Gainesboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen after a visit with his mother will leave for Washington, D. C., where they will reside.

It never rains but it pours!

IT WAS "company night."
BUT WHEN I got home.
I FOUND the Browns.
HAD A sick baby.
AND COULDN'T come.
SO I chortled "Oh, joy.
WON'T SUE and I have.
SWELL EATS for two!"
BUT NO, Sue said.
"YOU DON'T suppose.
I'D WASTE all this food.
JUST ON you!"
AND SO I said.
"LET'S PHONE the Smiths."
BUT THEY had headaches.
THEN WE tried the Joneses.
AND THEY fell for it.
AND WHEN grub for four.
WAS JUST about ready.
THE PHONE bell tinkled.

AND THE Brown baby was better.
AND A minute later.
THE SMITHS changed their mind.
AND THE Missus fainted.
"OH, WELL," I said.
"THE MORE the merrier.
WHAT'S THE difference?
IF THERE isn't enough food.
I'LL FEED the males.
ON THE cigarettes that satisfy.
AND YOU women can talk.
AND BETWEEN the two.
WE'LL ALL be Satisfied."

WONDERFUL company, Chesterfields—any time, anywhere. Just seem to "hit the spot." Good tobacco, good blending, (by a private formula that can't be copied), good-looking package with an airtight wrapper. On every count, an all-around downright good smoke. "Satisfy"? All over the place.
